Loosening Up with Mixed Media

Could your art work use a little pizzazz? Then this workshop is perfect for you. Beginning to intermediate level students are invited to loosen up their painting style using acrylics and other media. Students will learn basic principles of design and composition and experiment with textures and layering to create a rich, original art work.

Pat Zalisko

Zalisko has wonderful childhood memories of painting intricate Ukrainian eggs—one of her first experiences in the creative world. Many years later, her powerful and evocative abstract work often echoes the bright coloration of pysanky. Born and raised in New York City, she was encouraged by her parents to pursue a practical career and practiced law until she retired & moved to Florida in 2004.

In her new environ of New Smyrna Beach, Zalisko fully embraced her desire to paint. She broadened her innate knowledge by studying with instructors such as Harold Garde and Steven Aimone, both of whom recognized her talent and commitment to creating art.

Over the past several years, Zalisko's work has regularly appeared in exhibitions and private and public collections in New York City, Orlando, Miami, New Orleans, the United States and abroad. Her work is widely published. Zalisko is currently represented by Art Charlotte Gallery (Charlotte, NC), Sweet Art Gallery (Naples) and Hollingsworth Gallery (Palm Coast).
