

Legendary Florida

A HISTORIC PORTRAIT IN SOUND

A Symphonic Work by Composer Robert Kerr inspired by the Florida works of Jackson Walker with Narration by Dr. Gary Mormino

Premiere Concert

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2010

5:00 p.m. Gala Artist Reception at the Historic Courthouse in Downtown DeLand

7:00 p.m. Concert at the Athens Theatre at 124 N. Florida Ave., DeLand

TICKETS ON SALE NOW!

$150 PATRON LEVEL (includes Gala Artist Reception, Concert, signed ltd. ed. print, listed on programs/website)

$75 VIP (includes Gala Artist Reception and Concert at Athens Theatre)

$55 Friend level (includes Concert) - $40 Friend level for Museum members

VIP Levels beginning at $75 and above (includes Gala Artist Reception and Concert at Athens Theatre and other benefits)

*Orchestral Work written by Florida composer, Robert Kerr / Narration written by Dr. Gary Mormino

*Inspired by the Legendary Florida paintings of Jackson Walker / Symphony to be conducted by Dr. Monty Musgrave

*Choral Direction by Fred Eshleman / Narration performed by Harry Burney

Community Orchestra assembled for the premiere includes community professional musicians & top level student musicians from Volusia County Schools & area universities.

Jackson Walker

Dr. Robert Kerr

Dr. Gary Mormino

